

hi guys!

now i speak in english, because there is no reson! i am in england!

well i will explain you my fabulous week-end in the peak district national park. i was going with a new wwoofer "heather" an american girl who i don't now her age, but about thirty. she is crazy about climbing and wild !!! and the goodpoint is that there is a lot of roc in this area! so we had climbing a lot on saturday, may be five or six diferent way, and it was amazing ! she have all the equipment for climbing exept my harness but don't worry she made me another one, with some roop, so i was in safe ! it was a very beautiful place with a lot of heather (yes i know it is the name of the american wwoofer but it is also the name of a plant) anyway, lot of peety moss and grass for the...

Consultez la source sur Enroutes.com: Blog de toto778 - quelques nouvelles sur radio toto